

SCHOOL AWARDS FOR PHD STUDENTS

The following awards have been established through donor contributions. Specific application instructions and deadlines will be sent to all Ph.D. students each year by the PhD Program Director.

Daniel S. Sanders Fellowship:

The Daniel S. Sanders Fellowship is given to an international student whose focus is consistent with those of former Dean Daniel Sanders: international social development, world peace, human rights, social justice and/or the study of social welfare or social work issues from a global perspective.

Cynthia J. Bell Memorial Scholarship:

The Cynthia J. Bell Memorial Scholarship is given to a second year Ph.D. student whose focus area is child welfare and/or child welfare law, areas of particular interest of Ph.D. graduate Cynthia Bell.

Ernest Gullerud Dissertation Award:

The Ernest Gullerud Dissertation Award is an annual award given to a doctoral student who has successfully completed the dissertation proposal defense. The purpose of this award is to assist in the completion of the dissertation.

